W. J. STONE ON LONG JOURNEY

W. J. Stone has moved a portion of his household goods to 210 South Central Avenue, where Mrs. Stone and the children will live this summer. Mr. Stone, who recently sold the beautiful home at 641 North Brand preparatory to moving to the big ranch near Paso Robles, recently acquired, shipped the remainder of the household goods up there last week and went Sunday to arrange about storing them. He will return in about a week, then go east to look after business affairs in Michigan, Illinois and South Dakota. On his return from there the family will move to Paso Robles to settle down on the ranch.

Certificates of service were presented to faithful workers, old and young, the list including May Sullivan, Harriet Wilbur, Evelyn Sullivan, Mrs. R. M. Tisdale, W. W. Moss, Mrs. John A. "OLD FOLKS' DAY"

PRESBYTERIANS PAY HONOR TO THE AGED MEMBERS OF THE CONGREGATION

Sunday morning service at the Presbyterian Church proved to be a delightful hour. The event was "Old Folks' Day." The church was most beautifully decorated with Canterbury Bells, ferns and carnations. The elderly people gathered in the prayer room and from there marched to the middle front section of the church which had been reserved for them. Each one was given a bouquet of the dear old-fashioned flowers such as our grandmothers loved to have in their garden: bachelor buttons, baby's breath, roses, spice pinks, lavender and many other kinds. The anthem by the choir and the hymns were appropriate for the occasion and Mrs. Arnold gave a solo in her usual charming manner. Rev. Lawrence Ward, former pastor of the church, was present and offered the prayer. Rev. W. E. Edmonds gave the sermon and took as his subject, "The God of the Aged," with the text Isaiah 46:4 and part of the 14th verse of the 92d Psalm, "They shall still bring forth fruit in their old age. The divisions of his sermon were, "The Constancy of God," "The Memories of Old Age," "The Wonderful Hope of the Aged." "The Power of Their Testimony," and "The Blessings of Fellowship." He closed with a word to the young people on what would mean real success in their lives; a warning to the midddle aged who were neglecting the things worth while in the world's battle; and with words of love and encouragement to the special guests of the service. The sermon ended with the benediction and prayer.

"All my hope on Thee is stayed,
All my help from Thee I bring,
Cover my defenseless head
With the shadow of Thy wing."

At the close of the service the congregation gathered about the honored guests and spent a few minutes in greetings and good wishes.

FOUR BIRTHDAYS

MR. AND MRS. DAVID FRANCY ENTERTAIN FOR MEMBERS OF FAMILY

Mr. and Mrs. David Francy of 136 North Kenwood entertained Friday evening with an informal family party in celebration of the birthdays of four members of their family which occurred last week, viz., Harry Francy, who has just been discharged from army service and returned to Glendale, Mrs. George Staub, Roma Staub and Louis Nunn. The refreshments which were served at the close of the evening included three handsome birthday cakes. A general social good time which included considerable music occupied the guests entertained, the list including Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Nunn, Mr. and Mrs. George Staub and family, Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Francy, Harry Francy, Sergeant Akin and Miss Helen Engle of Los Angeles.

ED IS SURE SOME TRADER

Several days ago Ed Martmer put an ad in the Evening News for the sale of a fine milch goat at $80. Asked about his success in disposing of this high priced animal, he said he traded her for $40 cash, a good horse, rubber-tired buggy and harness. Then he traded the horse for a smaller one, and $25 cash. So he has received $65 in cash and has on hand a horse, buggy and harness worth, in his estimation, at least $100.

SOME THINGS COMING DOWN

Announcement has been made by the meat packers that there will be a substantial reduction in the price of fresh meat very shortly. Glendale dealers confirm this news and mighty glad are they of the fact, as it means increased sales. There has been a considerable fall in the price of garden seeds recently also, so maybe that long-promised slash at the haughty Mr. H. C. L. has arrived at last.

RETURNING SOLDIERS IN GREAT DANGER

It is announced in this morning's dispatches that a train bearing 270 members of the 25th Engineers, 150 of them Californians and four from Los Angeles and vicinity, was wrecked near Ashland, Neb., Sunday. Three sleepers went down an embankment into a swollen river. Miraculously, it seemed, not one was killed and none fatally injured, though it is feared some will suffer from being plunged into the water.

AUSTRIAN DELEGATES RECEIVE TREATY

DOCUMENT IS A SKELETON PACT, BUT CONTAINS LEAGUE OF NATIONS COVENANT

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

St. Germain, June 2.—The peace treaty was handed to the Austrians at 12:30 o'clock this afternoon. The meeting convened at 12:35 and was delayed by the late arrival of President Wilson.

Premier Clemenceau had notified the Austrian delegates that no oral discussion would be permitted and that they must reply in writing within fifteen days.

The document is apparently only a skeleton treaty, with financial, economic, reparation, military and boundary clauses either entirely or partially lacking. The complete sections consist principally of political and territorial clauses and the League of Nations covenant.

Clemenceau finished the opening instructions at 12:29, then his speech was translated into English, Italian and German and the treaty was presented.

Austrian Premier Renner, in replying, argued that the peoples of the former Austro-Hungarian Empire should share the responsibilities and costs of war. Describing the conditions in Austria, he declared: "Only by the relief organized by Herbert Hoover have we avoided absolute starvation." In concluding Renner said: "You may rest assured our foremost wish is co-operation according to our strength, within uncontested boundaries, to secure the possession of our liberties and civilization. We will co-operate to the fullest extent possible in the League of Nations for the attainment of world peace."

The leading provisions of the Austrian treaty as announced are: Acceptance by Austria of the League of Nations covenant and the labor charter and renunciation of extra-European rights. She is to demobilize her naval and aerial forces; she is to recognize the independence of Hungary. Austrians guilty of war crimes are to be surrendered for trial. Austria is to accept economic conditions imposed and give free transit to the Allies, as in the German treaty provided. Sections dealing with war prisoners and graves are identical with those in the German treaty. Bohemia and Moravia are to form the boundary between Austria and Czecho-Slavonia. The boundary between Austria and Jugo-Slavia is to be fixed later. Western and northwestern frontiers are unchanged. Austria is to recognize the independence of the Czecho-Slavia and Jugo-Slavia peoples, and the Allies agree to recognize Austria as an independent republic under the name "Republic of Austria." Austria is to recognize the boundaries of Bulgaria, Greece, Hungary, Poland and Rumania as they are now or may be later determined, and she is to recognize the independence of all territories which were formerly a part of Russia. The Brest-Litovsk treaty and all treaties with Russian factions since the Russian revolution are to be annulled. Austria consents to the abrogation of the treaty of 1839 guaranteeing Belgian neutrality. Austria surrenders to the Allies her entire navy and all war ships under construction for Austria are to be "used for industrial purposes." All naval arms and materials are to be surrendered and the future use of submarines prohibited. The military terms of the treaty are reserved for future settlement.

YAQUI INDIANS SURROUND GUAYMAS

MEXICAN FEDERAL TROOPS ARE CONCENTRATING AT ORTIZ FOR OPPOSING YAQUIS

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

Nogales, Arizona, June 2.—Yaqui Indians surrounded Guaymas, Mexico, last night, also Esperanza, south of Guaymas. It was reported that they had attacked and entered Guaymas, but the report was not believed.

Mexican federal troops are concentrating at Ortiz, preparing to take the field against the Yaquis. Much fear is felt for the safety of Americans in the threatened territory.

NO TELEGRAPHERS' STRIKE

PRESIDENT OF NATIONAL COMMERCIAL TELEGRAPHERS' UNION DENIES IT IS TO BE CALLED

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

Washington, June 2.—President Konenkamp of the National Commercial Telegraphers' Union today denied that a nation-wide telegraphers' strike will be called.

DEMANDS OF U. S. WORKING WOMEN

Philadelphia, June 2.—Organization of all working women into trade unions will be the aim of the National Women's Trades Union League, which opens here today. This is the sixth bi-ennial convention of the league.

HOT WEATHER FIRES

Hot weather is bringing forward prematurely the crop of grass fires. A summons to Fire House No. 1 at noon sent members of the force with the Buick and chemical engine to Colorado and Pacific Avenue where trash in a eucalyptus grove was burning and endangering houses in the neighborhood. It was put out with dirt and shovels without the use of chemicals. Water is not available there because there is no big pipe line in that part of the city.

Another call received a few minutes later summoned the fire laddies to 324 West Lexington where there was a grass fire, but it had been extinguished by the time they arrived. The firemen say it is dangerous business burning trash under a hot sun with everything around about as dry as tinder. They are hoping the city trustees will pass an ordinance which has been under consideration fixing the hours in which householders will be permitted to burn trash.

A fourth grass fire call came from the alley between Lexington and California and Brand and Orange about 1. When the engine arrived it had crept close to a private garage and looked threatening but was soon extinguished.

AT GLAZIER HOME

CHANDOS MARKS WHO LOST FOOT IN THE ARGONNE, AND OTHERS ARE GUESTS

Mrs. Dora Glazier, of 320 East Lomita, is having the pleasure of entertaining a niece from Chicago, Mrs. Corinne Bishoff. Her husband is coming to the coast in a short time and she will join him in San Francisco. Together they will come to Glendale about the middle of June and will then take in all the sights of Southern California.

Mrs. Glazier's son, Harry Glazier, recently discharged from the army, has joined the Majestic Theatre Stock Company, which is headed by Lewis Stone.

Today Mrs. Glazier is entertaining Sergt. Chandos Marks and Sam Collins. Sergt. Marks has many friends in Glendale where he spent about a year in the home of Mrs. Glazier during the absence of his parents on a world tour. He was with the 91st Division and lost a foot in one of the terrific battles of the Argonne Forest. Not yet has he been released from the Letterman Hospital in San Francisco, but he has been granted a furlough to come south and see his friends. He will be with Mrs. Glazier for several days and his friends will be glad of the opportunity to renew acquaintance. Mr. Collins was in service in the navy.

JUNIORS HAVE CLASS PARTY

The class party of High School Juniors held Thursday evening at the home of Mary Logan, 1261 South Central Avenue, was a great success. A few who came early played tennis, and other games were played, but the greater part of the evening was devoted to dancing. The young people who participated were: Marian Richardson, Dorothy Rowley, Isabel Van Epps, Ethel Harden, Ruberta Hopping, Margaret Byrkit, Irmadean Bowen, Mildred Singleton, Evelyn Ashman, Helen Wood, Maudie Woodbeck, Emily Brockman, Virginia Chappius, Hazel Wilson, Elizabeth Webb, Helen Ingledue, Mary Rich, Harriet Barnes, Mary Logan, Messrs. John Worley, Lester McReynolds, Raymond Fanset, Arthur Whipple, Roland Brown, Clayton Carr, Leland Wise, Ralph Hutchinson, Guy Bennett, Stuart McMillan, Roger Dennison, Harold Dewey, Herbert Besant and Clarence Ralston.

POSTOFFICE QUARTERS

HAVE BEEN DOUBLED IN SIZE AND ALTERATIONS MADE

The postoffice quarters have been doubled in size by removal of the partition between the room originally occupied and the one north of it. The additional room and the rear portion of the old quarters are to be used by the 11 city and 5 rural carriers. A heavy wire screen divides this room from the office space. The lobby has been cleared of some of the decorations that adorned the wells and re-tinted. All the woodwork will be re-varnished, also. The sacks of mail will be delivered and sent out through the north room, thus keeping the lobby always clear. The improvements add much to the appearance of the office, but none to the convenience of the patrons. There is still but one window open at a time and but one clerk available to wait on the long lines of patrons frequently waiting in front of it. Only an independent postoffice will remedy this state of affairs.

GOOD FISHING

Mr. and Mrs. Blake Franklin, their children and their house guest, Mrs. Watson, in company with Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Worley and son Harold, enjoyed a week-end camping trip at Lyon Springs, above Matillaja. They left Glendale Thursday and returned Sunday night and while there caught 200 or more trout, the longest measuring about nine inches. It is very beautiful there and an excellent place to fish as was proved by their record. It was Mr. Franklin's third visit this season. Usually by going that far they have been able to get away from the crowd, but this time they shared the camp with about fifty other auto loads.

Friday evening, June 6th, the Seniors of Union High School are to enjoy a triple entertainment furnished by the Juniors. It will begin with a theatre party at the Palace Grand where the entire upper balcony has been reserved for the two classes. After the play they will adjourn to the High School where games and dancing will be enjoyed in the gymnasium, and a supper will be served in the cafeteria.

CHILDREN'S DAY

BEST PROGRAM IN YEARS AT CENTRAL CHRISTIAN CHURCH BY CHILDREN

Sunday, June 1st, was a red letter day in Central Christian Church. In addition to a heart-searching, expository sermon following the Bible School at 9:30 to 10:30 a. m., a Children's Day program was given in the evening that far exceeded in worth and interest any ever before held in the church. The morning sermon was on the first twelve verses of the second chapter of Mark's gospel, relating to the healing of the paralytic, borne of four, who was let down through the roof because the crowd about the doors of the house where the Master was teaching were so crowded that no ingress that way was possible. The speaker, Rev. Clifford A. Cole, dwelt on the Master's power to forgive sin as well as to heal bodily ills and stated that the pardoning of our sins is of far greater importance than the cure of the body and great stress is laid on the former, constantly, throughout the New Testament, while no promise is made that all bodily ills shall be healed. He dwelt on what team work would accomplish. The four gained an entrance for their sick friend when one or two would have failed. Thus close team work in church and Bible School work will win every time in gaining recruits to the cause. He deprecated "knocking" of all kinds and said that the "anvil chorus" should be barred from all Christian bodies. Never speak an ill word of anyone's efforts but boost all the time.

The Children's Day exercises were planned and carried out by a most efficient committee of four. It consisted of songs, dialogues, scenes representing missionary enterprises and youthful club work among boys and girls in missionary effort, with special musical numbers by members of the choir. The goal for the Children's Day offering had been set for $150, but the amount of $157.39 was reached last night with enough more promised to bring the sum total up to $175, it is thought. This assures the church that the coveted "Living Link" conditions will be fully met and that Central Christian Church will be the sole support of a mission station in Africa at a yearly outlay of $600.

SALMACIA-ROCHETTI WEDDING

Vincent Salmacia, of the Glendale Phonograph Company, and one of the prominent young business men of this city, was quietly married Sunday afternoon at the Holy Family Catholic Church to Miss Katherine Rochetti, of Los Angeles. Father O'Neill officiated. Miss Ruby Goodwin of Los Angeles was maid of honor, and Horace Neeley, also of Los Angeles, was best man. Only relatives of the bride and groom were in attendance. Following the ceremony a wedding supper and reception for the bridal party was held at the home of Frank Salmacia, brother of the groom, at 703 Orange Grove Avenue. The young benedict has leased a home on Salem Street, where he and his bride will be at home to their friends in the near future.

Horace Neeley, an old friend of Vincent Salmacia, who acted as best man at his wedding, is to be associated with the Salmacia brothers in business and will be in charge of the branch establishment they are opening in Burbank.

L. C. BRAND ENTERTAINS FOR COUSIN

A delightful dancing party, which had quite a military flavor, was given last Wednesday evening at the home of L. C. Brand, of North Glendale, to celebrate the home-coming of his cousin, Douglas Balthis. About thirty couples were entertained, the guest list being confined for the most part to Glendale and Los Angeles members of Company F, 217th Engineers, and their ladies. Delicious refreshments were served at the close of play.

RETURNS TO CALIFORNIA

Roy Clayton, son of Mr. and Mrs. George E. Clayton, returned last week from Chicago without completing his projected journey to New York. He had stopped to visit relatives in the windy city and during his stay there experienced the typically unpleasant weather which Chicago has learned to expect in early spring. It made him so homesick for California that he would not make any test of the Atlantic coast and so returned without ever seeing New York, declaring that Los Angeles county is good enough for him.

NEW WORLD DISCOVERS THE OLD

Nearly 428 years ago three little sailing ships, or caravels, as they were called, the largest of only twenty tons burthen, left the harbor of Palos, Spain, to cross an unknown sea in an effort to reach India by a new route. Christopher Columbus, working on the then much disputed theory that the earth was round, was certain he could reach India by traveling due west, though the only known way at that time was to go east. So certain was he of reaching this coveted destination that when, on October 12, he sighted the Island of San Salvador and saw the dark-skinned natives crowding the shore, he thought his goal was reached, so called the people Indians. He did not really discover America, but he did pave the way for every subsequent landing on the western continent. It was not until six years later, in 1498, that Columbus set foot on the American continent, and that was at the mouth of the Orinoco, in what is now Venezuela.

More than 400 years later, three great seaplanes—NC-1, NC-3 and NC-4—started from Rockaway Point, New York, to discover the Old World by air route. The NC-4 had engine trouble, alighted on the sea and was towed to Chatham, Mass., for repairs. Then it continued its flight and joined the other two at Trepassey, Newfoundland. On May 16 the three got away on the trans-Atlantic flight. The NC-4 landed at Horta, Azores Islands, thirteen hours after the start. The other two met with disaster and had to give up. The NC-4 left Horta Monday and arrived in Lisbon, Portugal, but a few score miles from Palos, Spain, the following day. It took Columbus two months and nine days to cross the Atlantic on his voyage of discovery. It took the NC-4 26 hours actual and 11 days elapsed time to make the trip by air 428 years later.

ALAS FOR OUR ILLUSIONS!

Some ruthless iconoclast is constantly demolishing our beloved idols in the form of illusions we have cherished all our lives. For instance, have not the family doctors warned us not to swallow anything without chewing it very thoroughly beforehand, never to drink water with our meals or eat hot bread at any time; always to sip milk slowly and never to drink boiled milk? Now comes one Dr. Hawk, writing in a well known magazine, and ridiculing all these bred--in-the-bone beliefs. He claims to have tried numerous experiments on numerous people, proving beyond a doubt that meat is as easily digested when we bolt it like a dog does his food as when we out-Fletcher Fletcher himself in the length of mastication; that drinking of water with meals promotes rather than retards digestion; milk boiled five minutes is better than plain, and cold milk should be bolted or sipped, just as one pleases. We have been assured that Washington did not cut down the cherry tree, that Napoleon did not apostrophize the pyramids or review his army from Mount Tabor; and lastly that General Pershing did not say: "Well, here we are, Lafayette." But if all these fond illusions about our eating are to be dispelled, life will not be worth living.

STATE HOUSING AMENDMENTS VETOED BY GOVERNOR

The three bills passed at the recent session of the California General Assembly, amending the state tenement house, hotel and dwelling laws, were vetoed by Governor Stephens, according to telegraphic advices from Sacramento. Senate bill No. 546, amending the state hotel law, and Senate bill No. 617, amending the tenement house law, were introduced by Senator Burnett, and Senate bill No. 393, amending the dwelling house act, was introduced by Senator Rominger at the preliminary session. The bills then proposed only a few changes to which there was apparently no opposition. During the closing days of the session many additional amendments were included in the bills by the committees to which they had been referred, and they were passed as they came from the committees.

While some of the amendments were desirable, others aroused the opposition of the state housing commission, which declared that they were retrogressive. J. J. Backus, chief building inspector of Los Angeles, also opposed the bills on the same ground, and the city council paid his expenses to Sacramento to urge the Governor to veto them. Opposition to some of the amendments gained strength as days passed and the Governor did not act on the measures, and it is understood that during the last two weeks he received many communications urging him not to approve the bills.—Southwest Builder and Contractor.

COMMUNITY BUILDERS

The large banks of the nation are carrying on an extensive campaign to educate the public in the matter of carrying on and building up foreign trade. The banks are simply pioneering the way to build up new business. Similarly the banks in the smaller communities are carrying on extensive campaigns to show the advantages of intensive farming, such as raising berry crops, sugar beets, etc., breeding up the flocks and herds and in general running the farm as a business proposition.

This is the new way of developing business by helping to develop the community first. A live bank, operated along modern lines, is one of the greatest assets any community can have.—The Manufacturer.

ARE YOU A FIRE FIEND?

Fire is responsible for a greater loss of life and property than any other agency, and 90 per cent of the fires are preventable. At this time of the year it is particularly important to clean up and destroy all rubbish and refuse. In eighteen of the principal Pacific coast cities, 1,135 fire alarms were received in April. Virtually all of these fires were due to carelessness. Think of this terrible loss that could be so easily prevented if just ordinary precautions were taken. We read regularly of a house burning up with children locked in it, of schoolhouse fires, hotel fires, forest fires and great factory fires, etc., etc., and in nine cases out of ten the cause of the disaster was plain carelessness or thoughtlessness on somebody's part.

It is much easier to prevent a fire than to put it out. BE CAREFUL!

REVERENCE FOR LAW

Abraham Lincoln said: "Let reverence for the laws be breathed by every American mother to the lisping babe that prattles on her lap; let it be taught in schools, in seminaries and in colleges, let it be written in primers, spelling books, and in almanacs; let it be preached from the pulpits, porclaimed in legislative halls and enforced in courts of justice, and, in short, let it become the political religion of the nation, and let the old and the young, the rich and the poor, the grave and the gay, of all sexes and tongues and colors and conditions sacrifice unceasingly upon its altars."

If there ever was a time when this injunction of Abraham Lincoln should be received seriously, it is now. The greatest peril of our times is the disposition to disregard law, in the home, the church, society and the state. Every truly loyal man or woman will obey the laws of the land whether they suit them or not, so long as they are a part of the statutes. Whether an individual approves of a law or not, he will not violate it, as so much as the variation of an inch in that respect by some may encourage others to go a league in that direction. And the disregard of law by high or low is the first step toward anarchy.—The Golden West.

POOR OLD MEXICO

Mexico is about due for another turnover in government. Carranza seems to have lost the confidence of most of his people and of foreign governments as well. In giving free reign to German intrigue and propaganda he seriously offended the Allies and this country. Angeles, a lieutenant of Villa, is the choice of the latter for president, and has pretty heavy backing.

AVAUNT, 13 HOODOO

Rev. Clifford A. Cole and wife are a living refutation of the 13 superstition. They were married 13 years ago on Friday, June 13th. Next week Friday, the 13th, they will celebrate their 13th wedding anniversary and they've been doing pretty well, thank you, all these past 13 years.

MISS LINDSAY'S RECITAL

The third annual recital of Miss Edith Lindsay's dancing classes will be held Wednesday evening, June 11th, at 8:15, in Knights of Pythias Hall, Brand Blvd. and Park Ave.

A most interesting program has been arranged, and a genuine treat is in store.

Admission to the public will be 25 and 50 cents.

Personals

There is quite a scramble among chicken raisers on a small scale to secure lawn clippings these days as it is held that plenty of green feed is necessary for large egg production.

J. F. Mallory is gradually fitting up his recently acquired two and one-half acre ranch at 520 West Broadway for poultry raising. This is the place formerly owned by R. W. Stine.

Mrs. S. H. Carter of Lindsay, Cal., who, accompanied by her three children, has been visiting her cousin, Mrs. C. A. Cole, at 132 South Kenwood, for a few days, returns home today.

Mr. and Mrs. Findlay, of South Figueroa Street, Los Angeles, spent Sunday with F. B. Mattice and wife, 1007 North Louise, and attended Central Christian Church services, morning and evening.

The Misses Lulu and Irmy Wooldridge of 742 East Wilson Avenue spent the week-end with their parents at Rialto. They were accompanied on the trip by Miss Margaret Byrkit of 230 North Belmont Street, and the party returned Sunday evening.

The wife of a Los Angeles produce dealer told a Glendale friend recently that her husband had contracted with a number of hotels for storage eggs for the entire winter's use at 70c a dozen. This means a price of from 90c to a dollar for fresh eggs during the scarcest season.

Miss Genevieve Whittemore of Pomona has come to join her mother and invalid sister, who have been living here for a few weeks. All are so charmed with Glendale that they are trying to dispose of their Pomona property and locate permanently here.

Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy W. Bosserman are expected to arrive tomorrow from an auto trip which has taken them to many northern points and covered several weeks. When last heard from they were at Santa Barbara and stated they had enjoyed delightful weather ever since they left home.

Mrs. J. H. Daugherty, of 700 East Harvard, was summoned to Portland, Oregon, Saturday, by news that her mother, whose home is in Eugene, Oregon, was being taken to a hospital in the former city for examination as to the necessity of an immediate operation for a cancerous affection.

Miss Marjorie Imler got back from the State University Saturday morning and though she has had a delightful and successful year at Berkeley, in spite of the influenza epidemic, she is glad to be at home again. Next year she will be a junior. She will be one of the bridesmaids at the wedding of Evangeline Huntley.

More than keeping pace with the poultry industry in Glendale, the raising of goats for milk sale and marketing of the young has grown to very large proportions. There are several small ranches devoted exclusively to this industry and many persons using the raising of goats as a side line.

The Literary Section of the Tuesday Afternoon Club will celebrate the close of a very successful and profitable year with its customary annual luncheon, which will be served at the home of the curator, Mrs. . E. Bartlett, tomorrow, Tuesday, at one o'clock. It will be featured by quite a delightful after-dinner program.

Mrs. Spencer Robinson and her neighbors got a little scare Monday morning when she undertook to burn some trash in the backyard and the blaze spread to tall grass. Someone turned in an alarm and both engines responded, but by the time they arrived the flames were out and the only fire to be seen was a grass blaze a little west not far from Thornycroft, which was being looked after.

Miss Lilian Elias, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Elias of 104 West Cypress Avenue, returned Sunday morning from Fall River in Shasta county, where she has been teaching in the high school. She is glad to be here and her coming brings happiness to her parents. Sunday afternoon she was visited by her friend, Miss Wicklisse Stack, of Los Angeles, accompanied by her brothers and parents.

Mrs. C. E. Ripley, of Sioux Falls, South Dakota, presided at the pipe organ at the Sunday services in the First Methodist Church and greatly delighted her audience. She is the daughter of J. L. Babcock of 417 N. Isabel St., and a recent addition to Glendale's population and while here temporarily will fill the place left vacant by Miss McQuinn until a permanent organist is engaged. She is the organist of the First Methodist Church in her home city to which she will return in a few weeks.

Mrs. A. A. Barton, president of the Glendale Federation of Parent-Teacher Associations, got home Saturday morning from the State Convention at Santa Cruz. She is now at work preparing a report of the meeting which was highly profitable and accomplished a great deal of work. It was also exceedingly pleasant from the social standpoint as the ladies of that city proved to be fine hostesses and did everything possible to promote the enjoyment and comfort of delegates. BIRTHDAY DINNER

Mrs. Guy Pearson of Lomita Avenue was hostess at an elaborate and beautifully appointed dinner Saturday evening in celebration of the birthday of her son Marshall. American Beauty roses filled huge containers, not less than twenty-five dozen being employed in the decoration of the parlors. For the table a more dainty yellow and white scheme was carried out. Centering the board was a handsome yellow and gold basket filled with baby's breath and coreopsis, its handle adorned with bows of yellow tulle. Hand-painted place cards were of floral design terminating in the head of a pretty girl and tied with tulle bows of yellow, which were repeated on the small floral bon bon baskets used as favors. The six-course dinner was worthy its pretty setting. Covers were laid for ten, the guest list including: Misses Mary Logan, Harriet Barnes, Marie Horgan and Maryon Pearson and Messrs. Mansford Barnes, Russell Tummell, Fred Dodge, Harold Russell and Marshall Pearson.

Following the dinner the young people remained for an evening of dancing for which Miss Clara Pearson at the piano and a jazz orchestra furnished the music, the hostess being assisted in chaperoning them by Mrs. Robert De Normandie and Mr. and Mrs. James W. Pearson.

COMMUNITY SING

A good and thoroughly appreciative audience, made up of the standbys of the Community Sing, assembled Thursday night for the last songfest until August, as the leader, Prof. Kirchoffer, goes to Salt Lake City in about a week, where he has been engaged to lead a chorus of about 12,000 voices in the famous tabernacle, and from there will go still further east, not returning to his home on this coast until about six weeks hence. He has had a strenuous winter and needs rest.

The session was marked by words of appreciation on his part of the fine work of the accompanist, Mrs. L. N. Hagood, of the courtesy which has been shown him in Glendale and of the responsive spirit of the chorus which has enabled him to accomplish results of which he is proud. On behalf of the chorus, its president, Alexander Mitchell, voiced its appreciation of the splendid work of the director, expressed the hope that he would return to lead the chorus the coming season, and wished him a pleasant journey.

The soloist of the evening was Mrs. Charles Parker of this city, who sang most beautifully Mrs. Hagood's composition, "The Sandman," Cadman's "At Dawning" and, as an encore, "I Know a Maiden Fair to See."

Because it was the last meeting, there was a rapid rehearsal of about fifteen songs, among them the new ones not included in the song manual, such as "Good Morning, Mr. Zip, Zip, Zip," "Keep Your Thoughts Bright," "Howdy Do," "Katie, Beautiful Katie," "Here We Are, Here We Are, Here We Are Again" and "America the Beautiful."

Mr. Mitchell announced that in order to make up the deficit caused by the failure of subscribers to bring up their arrears, a social evening and sing will be held at the home of Mrs. Ella Richardson, Saturday evening, June 27, at which a variety of stunts will be given, the speaker promising to dance the Highland Fling. It is to be an evening of frolic and informal good times. Mrs. Richardson invited everybody to come early and bring a picnic supper and drink hot coffee, which would be served at 10c a cup.

AN EVENING OF FIVE HUNDRED

The first of the series of four card parties which are being given under the auspices of the Sunday School and choir of St. Mark's Church, took place Saturday evening at the home of D. Ripley Jackson, 214 East Chestnut Street, and was a great social success. About forty ladies and gentlemen enjoyed an evening of Five Hundred. The ladies' prize for the best score was won by Miss Ethel Land, the gentlemen's favor going to Harold H. Faries. These prizes are to be awarded at each party and at the end of the series a grand prize will be given for the best scores of the whole period.

The Jackson home was beautifully decorated with palms, ferns and cut flowers, and an informal musical program was enjoyed at the close of the play, after which coffee and cake were served. The second party in the quartette will be held at the home of H. H. Faries, 404 North Louise, Saturday evening, June 14th.

PORTERS DRIVE OVERLAND

Mr. and Mrs. Glen Porter of 344 Salem Street are leaving today for an overland trip by auto in the expectation of being gone about three months. Their Ford car has been fully equipped for the journey with a side-car bed and a wagon bed for the cartage of trunk and camp outfit in the rear. They will follow the old Santa Fe trail and visit friends in Illinois at Monmouth and Aledo, Chicago being their most eastern objective. Their homeward journey will be by the Lincoln Highway and they will make stops in Nebraska, where they have relatives and in Salt Lake City.

THE RED LANTERN

Robert Jensen is providing a big attraction for this week—today and Tuesday, in the celebrated picture, "The Red Lantern," featuring Nazimova, which has been so extensively advertised and drawn such crowds in Los Angeles. It is described as a production "without a parallel in all the brilliant history of motion pictures. In two distant characterizations she outdoes her previous screen triumphs." It will be a great opportunity for Glendale picture lovers.

BIBLE CLASS BANQUET

The men's Bible class, led by E. Hoskyn, of the First Methodist Church of this city, will have another of the banquets for which it is famous next Friday evening at 7 o'clock. The organization has a membership of about seventy-five and its custom is to serve a banquet once in three months at which the hosts are the men who have celebrated birthdays during the previous quarter. Owing to the pressure of other matters in which the church was interested the last banquet was omitted. It will therefore be combined with this celebration, and the responsibilities of the hosts have been divided. Those who are to furnish the banquet are: J. R. Turner, B. S. Quick, Samuel Parker, W. G. Noland, W. N. Bott, J. N. Marsh, J. W. Orcutt, J. S. Martin, Milo McMillan, S. M. Sarrand, C. E. Russell, Dr. H. V. Brown and W. A. Webber.

The men who will provide the program for the evening are: J. G. Peart, G. W. Philippi, W. L. Wood, C. H. Bott, H. A. Wilson, G. A. Wright, J. A. Brooks, K. C. Sipple, L. W. Babcock, Mark Russell and E. D. Reynolds. The list of specially invited guests will include the pastor, Rev. Charles H. Scott, the Sunday School Superintendent W. A. Tower and R. M. McGee and the male members of his class.

D. A. R. LUNCHEON

The Richard Gridley Chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution will close its year with the regular annual luncheon which will be served at the home of the regent, Mrs. J. H. Braly, at 12:30 on Thursday. Great preparations are being made for this, the chief social event of the year in this patriotic organization. Covers will be laid for about forty, and there will be a fine program of after dinner speeches, Mesdames T. W. Preston and Gertrude Follansbee acting as toast mistresses.

BIRTHDAY DANCE

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph W. Meeker were host and hostess last Thursday evening at a pretty dancing party at which about twenty-five young people were entertained in celebration of the birthday of their daughter, Miss Mildred Meeker. The evening was devoted to dancing to music provided by piano and saxophone, Mrs. Alpha Robinson being the pianist and Arville Williams the player of the other instrument. Roses and pink carnations were lavishly used in the beautiful floral decorations and ice cream and cake were served at the close of the evening.

DEMOBILIZED

the illness of her husband from attending.

The first item on the program was the final report of the treasurer, Charles H. Cushing, which showed that the total receipts of the branch had been $4,630.13, of which $1,907.21 represented the receipts of the second war drive, $631.31 receipts from salvage. The branch now has in its treasury for home service work, $1,559.55. The greater part of its funds were expended for materials to be manufactured into comforts for soldiers and sailors, or remitted to the parent organization. Besides these disbursements, from a private fund about $200 was expended to provide comfort kits for boys who went into service from the southern part of the city.

Also about 2200 pounds of clothing were contributed to the drives for French and Belgian relief. The membership of the branch is approximately 528.

Mrs. Campbell made a clever and unusual talk, speaking very rapidly in order that she might "get a chance to say as much as possible" in the brief time allowed her, as she explained.

To the soldiers and sailors who were there in numbers approximating fifty, she expressed the satisfaction of the community in having them with us again and of having the opportunity to tell them the many things we tried to do for them while they were overseas and in camps, but which we were not always able to accomplish because of the limitations of Uncle Sam's transport service and red tape regulations. She said it was hard to say much about the Red Cross service when one was face to face with the boys and compared the home work with the greater things they had done.

She then paid a tribute to the courage of women in giving their sons and said she had never appreciated what it meant until she had a little son of her own. She referred feelingly to Mrs. Theodore Roosevelt, bravely bearing her widowhood, with one son filling a grave in France, one wounded, who has returned, one filling a post in far-off Mesopotamia. "I do not think," she said, "the mothers can ever forget the agony of their going, and if they had not promised me there would be a League of Nations to do away with war, I would never have had a child. I have no patience with the men who are fighting the League of Nations because they are Republicans and our President who is urging it, is a Democrat. Let us not forget that these men did what they did because they thought they were going to do away with war. We ought to start a new party with two purposes, first to do away with war and second to look out for poor folks. We might call this party "The Limit," and it should see that there is sufficient work and food to go around. I do not think that women should demobilize until they have made it impossible for men to kill each other in war."

Little Miss Divina Wood, who made $200 for the Red Cross by her dancing, then delighted the audience, which numbered not less than 200, with the Highland Fling and other Scotch dances, for which her sister furnished the piano accompaniment.

Mrs. C. L. Peckham, accompanied upon the piano by Mrs. Noble Ripley, sang "Silver Threads Among the Gold" and another number very beautifully.

Mrs. Eustace B. Moore gave some of her inimitable child recitations, "The Two Bears" and "Jane Says."

Fancy dances by Miss Edith Lindsay and two of her pupils, Lois Naudain and Miss Patterson, were beautifully presented, and the program closed with the singing of "Star Spangled Banner," led by Mrs. Peckham and Will Marple.

The chairs were then shoved back and the floor cleared for dancing into which the soldiers and sailors, their girl partners and friends entered with the gusto that only boys who have come back from service could put into that pleasure.

It was a delightful, social affair and thoroughly enjoyed by the service men and all who participated.

MURDER HEARING

SAN LUIS OBISPO, Cal., June 2.—Charged with the murder of Night-Watchman Morehouse at Paso Robles on May 7th, last, Edwin Langdon and Hugh E. Moore appeared in district court here today for preliminary hearing.

Langdon, who is 23 years of age, was arrested May 20th when apprehended in stealing $15 from a gasoline station. Moore, who is 18 years old, was taken soon after. Langdon has confessed to the guilt of the crime, exonerating Moore from any of it.

According to Langdon, he shot Morehouse, when the latter discovered him and Moore burglarizing a hardware store in Paso Robles. He said he had never shot a man in the back and that the watchman had a gun in his hand and was standing on equal ground with him. In his confession Langdon shows considerable pride over the fact that he had stolen more than 350 automobiles, been a successful counterfeiter and had done many a burglaring job.

MARRED THE FEATURES OF HIS FUTURE KING

W. Parkes, who has been living at 221 Hawthorne and is engaged in the production of moving picture comedies, claims the illustrious honor of having punched the royal face of Edward VII., late King of England. Mr. Parkes said he was living in Cowes at the time and he and the youthful Edward were about of a size. The latter escaped from his attendants and joyously engaged in a plebian game of marbles with young Parkes, who, in a quarrel over the game, committed lese majeste on the royal countenance.

GIVE HIM A CHANCE

There's lots of folks we meet at times,
We feel inclined to shun,
They may not have committed crimes,
Or aught dishonest done;
Yet down at the heel,—with elbows bare,
Unlike what they were once,
They still are brothers,—speak them fair,—
Give them another chance.

We cannot all be angels, nay,—
Tell truth I never met one;
And oft-times it is hard to say,
What's done or left undone.
That ragged chap 'at's slinking by,
Maybe has striven hard
To win in the race, but through one slip
Has missed his just reward.

Don't turn aside with scornful brand
And leave him to his fate
But offer him a helping hand,
It may not be too late.
Few sink so low but there's a spark
Still left from better days,
A kind word or a friendly nod
May fan it to a blaze.

You cannot read another heart
Nor gauge its weight of sin;
It may seem hopelessly grown hard,
Yet may be soft within.
To you life's journey may have been
One long, light song and dance,
Then pity him 'at's missed his way
And give him one more chance.

PACIFIC AMERICAN STEAMSHIP ASSOCIATION FORMED

(By United Press)

SAN FRANCISCO, June 2.—The Pacific American Steamship Association was formally launched here today at its first annual meeting. The following officers and directors were elected:

President and Director—Captain Robert Dollar.

First Vice-President and Director—A. F. Haines, general manager of the Pacific Steamship Co.

Second Vice-President and Director—Dalton Hann, Pacific Mail Steamship Co.

Director—S. F. Samuels, of the Oceanic Steamship Co.

Director—Capt. Charles Saunders, of the Matson Navigation Co.

Temporary Secretary, Fred A. Hooper of the William Diamond Co. Later a paid secretary will be appointed.

Representatives of the 25 or more steamship companies on the Pacific Coast attended the meeting.

The association is designed to provide a medium through which owners and operators of steamships on the Pacific Coast may deal with legislation and police of national, state and municipal bodies which affect the shipping interests.

The association will deal with all matters pertaining to cargoes, passenger and oil ship transportation.

Captain Dollar told the United Press that the association was organized at this time particularly to further the interests of the merchant marine, and to urge upon the nation the advisability of returning the merchant marine to private ownership.

"On no other basis," said Capt. Dollar, "can American ships compete with foreign ships. Our government can succeed after a fashion with the government operation of railroads because it can raise rates, but if it attempts to raise marine freight rates, ships of other countries will get all the trade."

SUNLAND

The work of the Sunland Branch of the Los Angeles Red Cross, which has been so successfully carried on for the past two years, has come to an end. We were notified by the Los Angeles Chapter that no more work would be required of us. The last meeting was held at the home of Mrs. Booth, on Wednesday afternoon. After paying all bills, we had to our credit, $425. This was turned over to the Los Angeles Chapter to be used in their work. We also decided to organize a ladies' auxiliary to our Chamber of Commerce. A meeting will be held soon to finish this organization. We would like all who are interested in our rally to attend. Due notice will be given, when held.

The Ladies' Aid of Tujunga M. E. Church will hold a bazaar on the afternoon and evening of June 7th. Dinner will also be served in the evening from 6 to 8.

Sunland now has a first-class barber located on the Graham Ranch, Hill Street, between First and Second. Mr. Mitchell comes here from a Los Angeles shop.

Word has been received from Arthur Akens by his mother that he has arrived safely in New York from overseas.

Stuart J. Flintham and Mr. Ainsley, County Park Commissioner and assistant, were in Sunland, Tuesday, looking after the Park. They report someone has helped himself to two of the large garbage cans that were placed in the Park for the public use. This is surely an outrage that the things put in the Park for public benefit have to be nailed down or cemented in in order to keep them. The parties who took them better return them for they will be found out.

A very serious accident occurred on the highway on Los Angeles St., when Billy Graham was thrown from the pony he was riding, directly in front of a big car and both wheels passed over his body, crushing him quite badly. The accident was caused by a dog running out and barking at the pony. The car was driven by H. Karr of Los Angeles, who took Billy in the machine to Sunland and, getting his mother, rushed with all speed to the Angelus Hospital, where Dr. Cookson, who had been called by 'phone, awaited them. On examination it was found three ribs were broken, shoulder badly crushed, and an arm broken in two places, his head cut quite badly and his ear nearly torn from his head. The doctor thinks he will pull through, as he is very brave and is resting easily. Mr. Karr was prostrated over the accident and has been in bed for three days. No blame was attached to Mr. Karr, as it was unavoidable.

Wm. Hoflinger, who was laid up a few days last week with lumbago, is back to his work again.

One of the most delightful social affairs of the season occurred on the evening of May 23, at the home of A. D. Kirchman on Walnut Drive, when the young people, who had been invited by Miss Viola Kirchman, arrived en masse and surprised Miss Mae in honor of her birthday. The house was beautifully decorated with roses. The evening was spent in games, music and dancing. Dainty refreshments were served. Those present were: George Scow, George Arnt, Mr. De Lapp, Cornelia Herron, Esther Nicholson, Elmer Adams, Paul Lancaster, Bryle Johnson, Winifred Herron, Mr. and Mrs. Harker and children.

Oliver Jump, from Maricopa and Herbert Branstetter are putting a telephone line in for the oil company and are pery successful with their work.

Messrs. Drake and Spencer are busy doing the carpenter work on the real estate office and fruit store for George Huse on Summit Avenue. The fruit stand will be ready to supply all kinds of fruit raised in the valley, beginning with blackberries.

Mr. and Mrs. Reed, who have been staying with Mrs. Dunlap in the Branstetter Apartments, returned to their home in Los Angeles Wednesday.

Mr. Herron is enjoying his vacation with his family this week.

Mrs. Dunlap went to Los Angeles to transact some real important business.
